Some of my favorite resources:

01. BBC Arabic

- <https://www.bbc.com/arabic/>
  - Offers a range of resources for Arabic learners, including news articles, videos, interactive language lessons.

02. National Foreign Language Center

- <https://nflc.umd.edu/projects/portal>
- Resources, including lesson plans, activities, and assessments, for a wide range of languages, including Arabic.

03. ●

- <https://www.easyarabicnews.com/>
  - Users can select their proficiency level and choose from a variety of news topics such as politics, sports, and culture. Each article has an audio recording of the article being read aloud as well as a glossary of key vocabulary words.
  - The website also features a section for quizzes, comprehension questions, and vocabulary exercises related to the news articles.

“The limits of my language means the limits of my world.” - Ludwig Wittgenstein

As Arabic teachers, we have the opportunity to open up new worlds for our students through teaching them the Arabic language. We are not only teaching them a practical skill, but also giving them access to a rich cultural heritage and a deeper understanding of the people and places where Arabic is spoken.
